Tips for writing Reflective journal

The following is a helpful formula for reflective journal writing.

Formula D-I-E-P

D – Describe objectively what happened

- Answer the question, “What did you, see, read, hear etc?”

I – Interpret the events

- Explain what you saw and heard;
- Your new insights;
- Your connections with other learning, your feelings etc;
- Your hypotheses; your conclusions;
- Answer the question what might this mean?

E – Evaluate the effectiveness and efficiency of what was observed

- Make judgments clearly connected to observations made. Evaluation answers the question, “What is your opinion about what you observed or experienced? Why?”

P – Plan how this information will be useful to you

- What are your recommendations? (Be concrete)

Consider: In what ways this learning experience will serve you in your future?

Remember your Journal Entries, attempt to:

- a. Analyze your own performance as a learner
- b. Evaluate your gains in understanding and completing tasks
- c. Verbalize how you feel about your learning
- d. Make connections with other experiences, ideas
- e. Demonstrate transfer of learning
- f. Integrate the concepts taught in courses
